STATINTL Telephone Conversation with [REDACTED] 3 Apr. 64

He indicated that Colonel Haig, who works for Mr. Califano in the Department of Defense, volunteered the information that the President does read each issue of the semi-weekly Checklist Summary. Colonel Haig told [REDACTED] he didn't wish to be queried further as to the source of this information, that he could vouch for its accuracy, Colonel Haig, on this basis, asked whether it would be possible for Secretary McNamara also to receive a copy of this publication. I replied that I saw no difficulties and I would check it out and inform [REDACTED] and Haig.
